THEY TALKED ABOUT US

"Record crowds had been seen, particularly for the Boogat, The StepCrew, Guylaine Tanguay and Ze Radcliffe Fanfare shows. "The Stadium was full and it confirms that the festival offers a diversified program with quality shows for all tastes," adds the director of the event. "

Ann-Marie Roberge, La Tribune

"Ze Radcliffe Fanfare , ambassadors of popular folklore. They explore klezmer as much as the sunny sound of Mexico. "We try not to be confined to one style. We touch on everything, be it the music of the Balkans, the repertoire of Latin America, Finland or even small Italian interludes, "says Simon Landry. "

Charlotte Mercille, atuvu.ca

" A group that automatically hooks you and gives you a smile. They are very competent musicians who have crossed the world of buffoonery, clowns and popular entertainment, Refreshing! "

Festivoix.com

"In spite of the young age of this group, its experienced musicians will certainly be able to entertain you and to make you passionate about their undiscovered musical style! "
